

An exciting evening of choral music is coming to Seattle on Friday, March 12, 2010. Two Grammy Award winning choirs have been invited to perform during the Northwestern American Choral Directors Association Conference held in Seattle March 10-13. The Grammy Night Concert featuring The Soweto Gospel Choir and The Phoenix Chorale, Charles Bruffy, director, and will be at the First Presbyterian Church in Seattle, Friday, March 12, at 8:00 p.m. with festival seating. The Puget Sound choral community has a unique opportunity to hear these two world-class choirs. Detailed information on these two choirs can be found on their websites: www.phoenixchorale.org www.sowetogospelchoir.com

A limited number of tickets are available to the general public not attending the Conference. We would like to offer your group the opportunity to purchase tickets before they go on public sale. Tickets are $25, and can be ordered through March 9th. Any tickets ordered after March 7th will be held at Will Call at the concert. Orders received by March 7th will be mailed to you. If you can send one order form for the total number of tickets requested by your group accompanied by one check made out to NW ACDA that is preferable. But individual orders will be accepted. Tickets will be mailed to the contact person on the order form if received by March 7th.

This is going to be a memorable concert not to be missed by fans of choral music!
